

2021 Corporate Governance Statement

The Board of Cobalt Blue Holdings Limited (Cobalt Blue or the Company) is committed to principles of best practice in corporate governance and is responsible for ensuring the existence of an effective corporate governance environment to safeguard the interests of the Company, its Shareholders and other stakeholders.

This Statement sets out Cobalt Blue's current compliance with the fourth edition of the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) Corporate Governance Council's Principles and Recommendations, which was released on 27 February 2019. The Principles are not prescriptive regarding the conduct of ASX listed companies. Rather, an ASX listed company is required to disclose whether or not it complies and if not, why not. To the extent that they are relevant to the organisation, the Company has adopted the Principles and Recommendations, and the Board considers that Cobalt Blue generally complies. Where the Company does not comply, this is primarily due to the current relative size of Cobalt Blue and scale of its current operations.

Copies of the corporate governance policies and charters adopted by the Board are available in the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website located under About Us on Cobalt Blue's website at www.cobaltblueholdings.com. The Company's Corporate Governance Statement, prepared in accordance with ASX Listing Rules 4.7.4 and 4.10.3, which was approved by the Board on 28 September 2021 and reports on the period from 1 July 2020 to 30 June 2021 (i.e. the recent reporting period), is set out below and in the About Us section of Cobalt Blue's website under Corporate Governance i.e. <https://cobaltblueholdings.com/resources/corporate-governance/>.

ASX Corporate Governance Principle / Recommendation	Particulars of Compliance
Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
Recommendation 1.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	The Board's responsibilities are contained in the Company's Board Charter, which is available on its website at https://cobaltblueholdings.com/resources/corporate-governance/ The functions of the Board, Chairman and Company Secretary are specifically set out in the Board Charter. The Board Charter also explains the relationship between the Board and management. The Board has appointed the Audit and Risk Committee, and the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, to oversee certain functions of the Board. Cobalt Blue's management comprises Josef Kaderavek Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Andrew Tong (Executive Manager) and Danny Morgan (CFO), to whom the Board delegates responsibilities as outlined contractually, and as expected for these executive positions.

	The primary roles and responsibilities of the Company's management include: the operation and administration of Cobalt Blue, as delegated by the Board; implementing the strategic objectives of the Company and operating within the risk appetite set by the Board; complying with all other aspects of the day-to-day running of Cobalt Blue; and providing the Board with accurate, timely and clear financial and other information to enable the Board to perform its responsibilities.
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive, or putting forward someone for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Company undertakes appropriate checks before appointing a person or putting forward a candidate for election as a Director, including checks as to the person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history. All material information in relation to potential Directors is provided to Shareholders, including in the form of disclosures contained in an explanatory memorandum to a notice of meeting, seeking the approval of Shareholders for the election or re-election of Directors. This is in order to give Shareholders full available disclosure on possible candidates to the Board.
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company has Non-Executive Director appointment letters for each of its Non-Executive Directors, which set out the terms of their appointments as Directors. The Company has entered into an executive services agreement with Josef Kaderavek in respect of his appointment as CEO and Executive Director respectively, with Andrew Tong as Executive Manager and also with Danny Morgan as CFO.
Recommendation 1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	The Company Secretary/s of Cobalt Blue are directly accountable to the Board, through the Chairman, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board. The Company Secretary's role includes advising the Board and its Committees on governance matters, monitoring that policy and procedures are followed, coordinating the timely completion and despatch of Board papers, and ensuring that the business at meetings is accurately captured in the minutes. The Company Secretary is accessible to all Directors. The Board is responsible for the appointment and removal of the Company Secretary.
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally, and;	Cobalt Blue has a Diversity Policy, the purpose of which is to enable the Board to: set measurable objectives for achieving gender and other forms of diversity; and annually review and assess those measurable objectives and the Company's progress in achieving them. Cobalt Blue has a strong commitment to diversity in business that is evidenced through its Diversity Policy, which is available on the Company's website at https://cobaltblueholdings.com/resources/corporate-governance/

(c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (2) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (3) either: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. If the entity was in the S&P/ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period.	During the recent reporting period the Board continued to be conscious of the requirement to establish reasonable objectives for achieving gender diversity. As at the end of the recent reporting period, the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the Board in accordance with Cobalt Blue's Diversity Policy and its progress towards achieving them include attempts to achieve a greater gender diversity providing that directorship positions, senior executive, and other staff and contract positions that become open from time-to-time are filled by people who offer strong value to the Company, its staff and ultimately shareholders. As at the end of the recent reporting period, the Company had four men and no women on its Board, seven men (one of whom is also on the Board) and one woman in senior executive positions, and 18 men and five women across the whole organisation. Cobalt Blue defines "senior executive" for the purposes of this Statement as those who directly report to the CEO and Executive Director. The Company is not a relevant employer under the Workplace Gender Equality Act. The Company was not in the S&P/ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period.
Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (a) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period. 	The Company has a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the Board, and has appointed the Nomination and Remuneration Committee to oversee the process of appointment and remuneration of the Non-Executive Directors and the CEO / Executive Director, and to identify and evaluate the necessary and desirable skills, experience and diversity of the Board and its Committees. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee Charter specifies the authority of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee as having this role, and sets out its role and responsibilities. A copy of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at https://cobaltblueholdings.com/resources/corporate-governance/ Cobalt Blue's formal process for periodically evaluating the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors is through the use of evaluation questionnaires. In respect of the June 2021 financial period, the Board evaluated its performance through the use of
